DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to the applicants' amendment received on January 5, 2007.
2. Claims 1-23 are presented for examination.
3. The applicants have not amended nor have the applicants cancelled any claims.
4. Applicants' arguments with respect to claims 1-23 have been considered but are deemed to be moot in view of the new grounds or rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

5. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

6. Claims 1, 4, 11, 13-17, and 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. As follows:

Claims 1, 4, 11, 13-17, and 20-23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claims 1, 4, 11, 13-17, and 20-23 are directed to sorting images in a "sortation memory". The sorting of these images does not appear to manipulate the images in order to produce a transformation of the images. The transformation of the images would bring about a "useful, concrete, and tangible result." These claimed inventions, as a whole must accomplish a practical application. That is, they must produce a "useful, concrete and tangible result."

State Street, 149 F.3d at 1373, 47 USPQ2d at 1601-02. MPEP 2106. In each of these cases the result is "sorting" images. The sorting of images are an abstraction as they are not useful, concrete and tangible they are not put in any tangible form and they are not presented, in such a way, to any other element of the system to provide some result that is of utility that may exist in the specification, however no specific use is provided for in the claimed invention. Therefore, the claims are non-statutory and stand rejected under §101 as not producing a "useful, concrete and tangible result."

The dependent claims are also rejected for being dependent upon the above rejected independent claims.
